

Rachel has lived in the Adirondacks her entire life and with that has a deep appreciation for the mountains, waters, trees, and animals. Nature is her connection to art; finding the beauty and creativity in all that surrounds us.

Rachel has worked in the non-profit sector for over 15 years and has a background in hospitality and management. Providing people with positive experiences has been a focal point of her work. She is currently the director for the Saranac Lake Area Chamber of Commerce and enjoys working with people and businesses in the community.

She lives in Saranac Lake with her husband, son, and pets. Rachel loves spending time with her large extended family and being outside hiking, swimming, paddling, skiing, and walking through the woods.
